ORGATEC India 2025 Debuts to Resounding Success, Setting a New Benchmark for India's Workplace Ecosystem

The first Indian trade show for workplace equipment and design brought together global brands and industry leaders, setting new standards for smart and sustainable office solutions

The premier edition of ORGATEC India 2025, held from 4 to 6 November at the Jio World Convention Centre in Mumbai, concluded on a high note, underscoring the rapid evolution of India's commercial interiors sector. With 101 exhibitors from over 10 countries and 9417 attendees from 18 countries, the event brought together the full spectrum of workplace supply-chain and demand-side stakeholders. The show floor featured some of the most influential names in workplace innovation, presenting a comprehensive view of the global and Indian office ecosystem. Interio by Godrej, Nilkamal EDGE, Wipro, Kokuyo, Spacewood, Humanscale, AFC Systems, Ozone India, Haworth, Framery, and Kubik showcased advanced solutions across furniture, ergonomics, acoustics, lighting, automation, IT integration, and facility systems, illustrating how design and technology together are redefining modern workspaces.

Leading exhibitors highlighted smart, sustainable, and ergonomic solutions aligned with India's rapidly evolving workplace landscape. Innovations ranged from future-ready seating and modular systems to human-centric designs, hybrid-enabled solutions, and advanced electronic locking technologies. Together, these launches reflected India's strong market momentum and growing focus on wellness, flexibility, and sustainability—key drivers shaping the country's fast-expanding office furniture sector.

Speaking of the success of the show, Mr. Milind Dixit, Managing Director, Koelnmesse Pvt Ltd, said, "ORGATEC India marks a milestone in bringing global workplace innovation and design intelligence to India. The country's USD 2.5 billion corporate wellness market, projected to reach USD 4 billion by 2033, reflects how companies are integrating mental health, holistic well-being and ergonomics into productivity goals. The overwhelming success of this debut edition reinforces India's growing appetite for world-class workspace solutions, and we are confident that the next edition will be even larger, with a stronger exhibitor presence and higher visitor participation. Through ORGATEC India, we aim to continue connecting global expertise with India's design and manufacturing strengths to create healthier, smarter and more sustainable workplaces of the future."

A key highlight of the debut edition was the ORGATEC India Conference, which brought together senior leaders from design, real estate, technology, sustainability, and corporate infrastructure to explore the rapidly evolving future of work. The two-day forum featured powerful discussions on topics such as Human-Centric Workplace Strategy, Sustainable & Net-Zero Buildings, The Role of AI and Technology in Modern Offices, and Design Thinking for Productivity & Well-being.

Running in parallel, the Workplace Dialogue offered an interactive platform for architects, designers, HR leaders, workplace strategists, and innovators to exchange ideas on human experience, digital integration, ergonomics, and inclusive leadership. The Dialogue featured high-impact sessions such as Designing for Digital, Women Who Build the Future, and Innovation & Smart Workplace Design, presented by experts. Their insights reinforced ORGATEC India's mission to build a collaborative, future-focused ecosystem that bridges global thought leadership with India's fast-advancing workplace needs.

ORGATEC India 2025 was supported by leading industry associations in India, including:

- Africa Facilities Management Association (AFMA)
- Architects, Engineers & Surveyors' Association (AESA)
- Corporate Gifts Association of India (CGAI)
- Council for Realty Infrastructure & Services Promotion (CRISP)
- Electronics and Computer Software Export Promotion Council of India (ESC)
- Indian Green Building Association (IGBC)
- Integrated Building Automation Community (INBAC)
- Manufacturers' Association for Information Technology (MAIT)
- National Association of Software and Service Companies (NASSCOM)

The collaboration of the many supporting associations reaffirmed the event's position as a powerful ecosystem connecting the workspace, design, real estate, technology, and sustainability sectors under one roof.

How well the trade fair has been received is reflected in the many positive responses from across the industry. Mr. Nirupam Chaudhuri (Director, NASSCOM) called ORGATEC India "a dynamic platform blending technology, design, and human experience to shape the future of workspaces." Whereas Ms. Bharti Singh Kalappa (Head - Facilities, Noida International Airport) described it as "a vibrant confluence of ideas where creators, thinkers, and decision-makers come together to shape tomorrow's workplaces." Ms. Sakhee Chandrayan (Founder & President, INBAC) noted that ORGATEC India "is not just continuing history but shaping the next chapter of intelligent and automated workspaces." And Mr. Makarand Kulkarni (CRISP Contributor & Senior Leader - Global Administration & Facilities) highlighted the need for knowledge-sharing aligned with India's growth vision.

The India office furniture market, currently valued at USD 4.81 billion and projected to reach USD 7.28 billion by 2030 at an 8.66 % CAGR, provided a strong backdrop to the conversations and sourcing activity at the show.

The next edition of ORGATEC India will take place from 19-21 November 2026 at Jio World Convention Centre, Mumbai.
